

David Cotterrell: Slipstream : Closing Weekend

Date: 29th July 2011

The exhibition Slipstream closes this weekend. Tonight it will be open until 8.30pm as part of the 'Last Friday' South London art event.

The exhibition, held at Peckham Space features a new two-channel video installation.

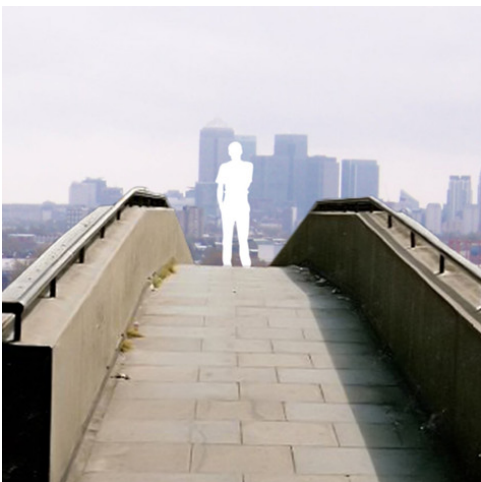

The ideas behind the work were discussed with David Dibosa on 9th July 2011 and are now the subject of a short film by Gordon Beswick.

Another on-line film by Terry Wilson shows artist David Cotterrell and Bradley Dilsworth from the Lea Valley Model Flying Club using the specially constructed aerial drone to film Slipstream in North Peckham.
