

David Cotterrell: PPAN Conference Palestine - 29.11.17

Date: 29th November 2017

David will be presenting at the Palestinian Performing Arts Network's first international conference in Ramallah. The conference will aim to assess the potential for arts to engage communities in various levels of social, political, economic, and educational change. The conference will host local, regional and international speakers to share their work and experience in their respective fields.

The conference, The Impact of Arts on Communities/Societies Will be held on Wednesday 29 November until Friday 1 December, 2017 from 9:30 am to 5:00 pm at the Palestine Red Crescent Society, Al-Bireh. David will be presenting, The Problem with Perspective, exploring an artists' potential roles within international relations, conflicted landscapes and complex narratives. The presentation considers the challenges to the orthodoxies of analysis and policy development and, at a moment of existential doubt within global engagement, reflects on the potential value of cultural practice, creative research and subjective responses within situations of local impasse and international interference.
